

PRODUCTION MANAGER

Jean-François Guillou is at the origin of the European concept ALMERIA COLLECTION, an idea which he develops with the collaboration of Aurélia Izarn-Berger, accompanied of Pénélope Lamoureux since 2011.

Having worked alternately as actor, author, director and producer on fictions and documentaries for production companies as Cinergie Productions, Lgm Films or France 2, and with director as Benjamin Cappelletti, Michel Hassan and Josiane Balasko, he decides to create Angevine Production which he manages since 2004.

Self-taught, film-loving, he is also the author, director and producer of 2 short films: « Laura » and « Pour Une Place Au Soleil », broadcasted at the international and who received from numerous prizes.
