

PRODUCTION ASSISTANT

Pénélope Lamoureux was born in 1985. Awarded a diploma in public law and in economy of the cultural industries, Pénélope Lamoureux showed a student committed and passionate about cinema. At first assistant inside of the department "cultural action" of the Festival Premiers Plans of Angers, she left working as cultural coordinator on Alliance-française from Port Said to Egypt. This experience led her to begin a documentary initiative on this subject and to investigate the stakes bound to the film production. That is why she occupies since June, 2011 the post of assistant of production within the company from Angevine Production.
